Designated Infection Control Officer (DICO)

Marin County Fire is hosting Katherine West for her basic two-day Designated Infection Control Officer training on March 3 and 4. The cost per student is $365. This covers the two days of instruction (see below), a course book and reference CD, lunch and snacks both days, a course completion certificate and CE for EMTs and paramedics.

Federal law requires that all emergency response agencies have a Designated Infection Control Officer.

The cost for the course is $365 per student and will be held at the Southern Marin Fire District Headquarters Station, 308 Reed Blvd, Mill Valley on March 3 and 4. Seating is limited and registration is required. The class will run from 8:30-1630. each day.

Link to map - http://goo.gl/maps/Xs3TN

To register, please email ksullivan@marincounty.org or call 415-473-2731. Your seat in the class is not confirmed until payment is received.

Please circulate this information to your colleagues. Thank you!

Course Description

This course covers testing laws, the Ryan White law, medical waste regulations, confidentiality, discrimination, DICO job description, how to establish an effective communication system, proper post exposure medical treatment, recordkeeping and reporting requirements. This course covers childhood diseases as well as meningitis and bloodborne pathogens & TB.