Fire Consulting Services LLC

Prometheus Fire Consulting is pleased to offer the following courses:

Intermediate Wildland Fire Behavior (S-290)

April 22 – 25, 2019

This is a classroom-based skills course designed to prepare the prospective fireline supervisor to undertake safe and effective fire management operations. It is the second course in a series that collectively serves to develop fire behavior prediction knowledge and skills. Special emphasis will be given to how fire suppression tactics must relate to fire behavior.

Map & Compass and GPS for the Wildland Firefighter

May 6 – 8, 2019

This course is designed to provide the wildland firefighter, particularly those in single resource positions such as Field Observer or Fireline Medic/EMT, with a strong working knowledge of the use of a map, compass, and GPS receiver in the wildland fire environment. Topics will include an overview of the different types of maps used, reading topographic maps and making calculations, coordinate systems, use of map and clinometer, global positioning system and GPS receivers, navigation, and field mapping. There will be a comprehensive field exercises designed to ensure student understanding. Course curriculum is based on the NWCG document Basic Land Navigation (PMS 475).

Field Observer (S-244) and Display Processor (S-245)

May 28 – 31, 2019

S-244 will provide students with the skills necessary to perform as a field observer (FOBS) and/or a fire effects monitor (FEMO). Topics include roles and responsibilities of the FOBS and FEMO, how to make observations and document those observations, how to produce hand-drawn and GPS field maps, and how to navigate using a compass and GPS. The navigation unit has 4½ hours of field exercises and the final field exercise is 8 hours.

S-245 will incorporate the exercises learned in S-244 to build and maintain operational maps by simulating interaction with a Situation Unit Leader.

Classes will be held at the Spring Valley Fire Department Training Center
3001 Calaveras Rd, Milpitas, CA 95035
