Class Description: This training course is designed as a self-assessment opportunity for individuals preparing to step into a leadership role. The course combines one day of classroom instruction followed by a second day in the field with students working through a series of problem-solving events in small teams FLAC (Field Leadership Assessment Course). Topics include: leadership values and principles, transition challenges for new leaders, situational leadership, team cohesion factors, ethical decision-making, and after-action review techniques.

Pre-course Work: A short reading assignment with questions

Reservations are required for all classes unless specified. No phone reservations will be accepted. You must send in a check or pay electronically to reserve your seat. If your department is paying for you to attend then we will shred your personal check or refund your electronic payment upon receipt of your department check. Checks are not processed until the last day of class so please plan accordingly. Checks should be dated for the last day of the course. Dress code for the facility is business casual or department uniform. No shorts or flip flops will be allowed.

You must call at least one week in advance to cancel or your fee will be retained. You will receive a confirmation e-mail once we have processed your reservation form, along with any course instructions. Any course prerequisites or materials required will be listed on the class flyer. These items are your responsibility to bring to class the first day. If you do not have them you will be dropped from class.

Reservations are on a first come basis unless spots are held by the sponsoring agency / department. California State Fire Marshal CFSTES and CSTI certificates may take 6 to 8 weeks to process.

If you have any questions, please contact the primary instructor for the course.
