

South San Francisco Fire Department

S-190 Introduction to Wildland Fire

Accredited by California Fire Service Training and Education System for credit toward California State Fire Marshal (FSTEP) certification

Description:	This course provides instruction in the primary factors affecting the start and spread of wildfire and recognition of potentially hazardous situations.
Instructor:	Captain Paule Medeiros, SSFFD
Dates & Times:	November 4, 2019 0900-1700 Hours
Location:	South San Francisco Fire Department, EOC 480 North Canal Street, South San Francisco, CA 94080
Enrollment:	Course fee is $50.00 per student and includes certification and student materials. Checks payable to: South San Francisco Fire Department

Registration Form - Student Information

Name:	Agency:
Address:	SFT ID#
City/State/Zip:
Phone:	Email:

Cancellation & Refund Policies: SSFFD may cancel classes for insufficient registration and issues you a full refund. If you must cancel your registration, please notify SSFFD as soon as possible. No refund will be given if a student cancellation occurs within seven (7) days or less prior to the course start date. Class is limited to 20 students.

For assistance, please contact Training Chief Juan Byron at 650-291-4896 or juan.byron@ssf.net

Please return this form with payment to Training Chief Juan Byron, 480 North Canal Street, South San Francisco, CA 94080