

Fire
Technology

I-200: Incident Command System

Fire 241 – I-200 Incident Command System. Introduction to Incident Command System (ICS) National Training curriculum. Includes principles and features, organization overview, incident facilities, resources, and common responsibilities. ICS 200 certification is the minimum requirement for attending ICS 200 level courses and functioning in a Unit Leader position during an incident.

Dates & Time:

Tuesday & Wednesday
April 25-26, 2023
8:00 am – 3:00 pm

Fees:

0.5 unit - $23.00
FSTEP- $75
Sierra College Fees approx. $23.00

Location:

Roseville Center
316 Vernon Street
Roseville, CA
Room 350

Registration:

Register online at www.sierracollege.edu
CRN #: 47693

Instructor:

Greg Guyan

Minimum enrollment required

Registration questions or Application questions contact: Alex at ayarmolyuk@sierracollege.edu

Fire
Technology

I-300: Intermediate ICS Expanding Incidents

Fire 242 – I-300 Intermediate ICS Expanding Incidents. Covers organization and staffing, incident resources management, organizing for incidents or events, incident and event planning and air operations within the Incident Command System national training curriculum.

Prerequisites: I-200

Dates & Time:

Wednesday-Friday
May 3-5, 2023
8:00 am – 4:50 pm

Fees:

1 unit - $46.00
FSTEP- $75.00
Sierra College Fees approx. $23.00

Location:

Roseville Center
316 Vernon Street, Roseville
Room 350

Registration:

Register online at
www.sierracollege.edu
Course code #47478
Information Call (916) 781-6251

Instructor:

Greg Guyan

Register early to guarantee your seat!

Minimum enrollment required

Registration questions or Application questions contact: Alex at ayarmolyuk@sierracollege.edu