

Forensic Vehicle Fire Investigation Course

Presented by Fire Investigation Industries (FII) and Shasta Arson Task Force

Redding, California: April 1st-5th, 2024

Live Vehicle Burns and Hands-On Vehicle Fire Investigations with Leading Experts in the Field

Fire, insurance, and law enforcement investigators will participate in live vehicle burns to analyze fire times, patterns and temperatures using the scientific method and systematic approach of analysis.

Highlights of this course include:

- Demonstration of incendiary, electrical, fluid, mechanical and friction caused fires.
- How to use cell phone towers and social media to further investigations.
- Vehicle insurance fraud investigations.
- Vehicle mechanical inspections after a vehicle fire.
- Speed Control Deactivation Switch.
- Utilizing Event Data Recorders
- Fluid analysis
- Vehicle system failures.
- Hazards created by safety devices.
- NFPA 921 and 1033 compliant

Course Fee: $400

A maximum of 30 students are allowed, and will be first come, first served. Tuition and materials are included in class fee.

When: April 1st – 5th, 2024

Where: 4300 Caterpillar Road,
Redding, CA 96003

Register at:

www.fireinvestigationindustries.com

Please bring a laptop to utilize during the course

