Course Description

This course will provide federal, state, and local level emergency responders with an overview of key duties and responsibilities of a Finance/Administration Section Chief in a Type 3, 2, or 1 All-Hazards Incident Management Team (IMT) or on an assignment. The target audience are federal, state, and local emergency responders who may be designated as Finance/Administration Section Chief on their local or state IMT, or as assigned. Students may include members of a variety of agencies and functional disciplines including fire service, law enforcement, emergency management, public works departments, as well as public health organizations, medical emergency teams and hospitals. By the end of this three-day, 24-hour course, students will be able to demonstrate, through activities and a Final Exam, the duties, responsibilities, and capabilities of an effective Finance/Administration Section Chief on an All-Hazards incident. This class meets CICC requirements for fire service personnel.
